Old Grimes is Dead!

Of all the old "songs and saws" in the recollection of that venerable and respected individual "the oldest inhabitant," perhaps none has possessed a greater share of notoriety than the one, the title of which heads this paragraph. It has been quoted in all kinds of speeches, referred to in all species of arguments; and sung to all sorts of tunes : and yet we venture to predict that not one in a thousand of those who repeated the intelligence of the melancholy faet: of "Old Grimes"" death, ever knew, with any degree of accuracy, what manner of man he was. In order that the public-i. e.-our public-should not remain any longer in the dark as to the real character of an individual of such extensive note and importance, we give the following descriptive verses, which are vouched for as being veritable, (although we doubt whether the picture would sell Northumberland, M C Grier, J Moore, Danville for £2000 sterling, as we are informed an old one of Charles I. painted by Vandyke, recently did, after being tossed and thrown about among o'd rubbish for a long rourse of years Old Grimes was a better man than Charles I, but his portrait is not worth so much because he was not so badly eminent.)

Old Grimes is dead; that good old man, We ne'er shall see him more; He used to wear a long black cost All buttoned down before.

His heart was open as the day-His feelings all were true-His hair was some inclined to grey, He wore it in a queue.

Whene'er he heard the voice of pain, His breast with pity burned— The large round head upon his cane From ivory was turned.

And ever prompt at pity's call, He knew no base design— His eyes were dark, and rather small-His nose was squiline.

He lived at peace with all mankind, In friendship he was true— His coat had pocket holes behind, His pantaloons were blue. Unharmed, the sun which earth pollutes,

He passed securely o'er — He never wore a pair of hoote For thirty years, or more.

But good old Grimes is now at rest, Nor fears misfortune's frown-He wore a double-breasted vest, The stripes ran up and down. He modest merit sought to find,

And pay it its desert— He had no malice in his mind, No ruffles on his shirt. His neighbors he did not abuse,

Was sociable and gay--He wore large buckles in his shoes, And changed them every day. His knowledge hid from public gaze,

He did not bring to view-Nor make a noise town meeting days, As many people do. His worldly goods he never threw

But lived (as all his brothers do.)

Thus undisturbed by anxious cares. And everybody said he was Old Dr. Jacob Townsend THE ORIGINAL DISCOVERER OF THE Genuine Townsend Sarsaparilla. Old Dr. Townsend is now about 70 years of age, and has hing been known as the AUTHOR and DISCOVERER of the GENUINE ORIGINAL "TOWNSEND SARSAPARILLA". Being poor, he was compelled to limit us manufacture, by which means it has been kept out of market, and the sales circumseribed to those only who had proved its worth and known its value. It had reached the ears of many, nevertheless, as those persons who had been healed of sore diseases, and saved from death, proclaimed its worderful.

HEALING POWER.

This GRAND AND UNEQUALLED PREPARATION is manufactured on the largest scale, and is called for through the second of the land, especially as it is found incapable of degeneration or deterioration.

Unlike young S. P. Townsend's, it improves eith age, and never changes but for the better; because it is prepared on scientific principles by a scientific man. The highest knowledge of Chemistry, and the latest discoveries of the art, have all been brought into requisition in the manufacture of the Old Dr's Saraparilla. The Saraparilla rest, it is well known to medical men, contains many medicinal properties, and some properties which as injurious to the extern. Some of the properties of Saraparilla are to vesses, and others, which if retained in preparing it for use, produce fermentation and ared, which is injurious to the extern. Some of the properties of Saraparilla are to vesses, that they entirely evaporate and are lost in the preparation; if they are not preserved by a scientific propers, known only to those experienced in its manufacture. Moreover, these relative properties of the root, which give to it all its value.

Any person can hold or size the root till they get a fact colored inputd, which is more from the coloring maner in the root than from arything claic the can the strain this inspid or vapid liquid, sweeten with squir melasses, and then call it "SaRSAPARILLA EXTRACT or SYRLP". But such is not the article known as the GENUINE OLD DR JACOB TOWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is so prepared that all the interproperties of the preparatilit post are first removed, everything capable of HEALING POWER.

SARSAPARILLA.

This is so prepared that all the intert properties of the Sarsaparilla root are first removed, everything capable of becoming acid or fermentation is extracted and rejected, then every particle of medical virtue is secured in a pure and concentrated form; and thus it is rendered menjable of losing any of its valuable and healing properties. Prepared in this way, it is made the most powerful agent in the Curre of Immunicrable Discenses.

Hence the reason why we hear commendations on every term of the properties.

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

It possesses a marvellous efficacy in all complaints arising from Indigestion, from Acidity of the Monneck, from unequal circulation, determination of blood to the head, palpitation of the heart, cold feet and hands, cold chile and hot flashes over the body. It has not its equal in Cloddes of Coughe; and promotes easy expectoration and gentle perspiration, relaxing strictures of the lungs, throat and every other part.

But in nothing is its excellence more manifestly seen and acknowledged than in all kinds and staces of FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

It works wonders in cases of Floor Albus of Whites Falling of the Womb, Obstructed, Suppressed, or Paintyd Menses, bregularity of the menstrual periods, and the like and is effectual in curing all the forms of Kirkey Discusses. By removing obstructions, and regulating the general system, it gives tone and strength to the whole body, and thus curve all forms of Horvous Discusses a great variety of other nationies, as Spinal privation, Neurolgia, St. Vitus Discusses the broad, excites the liver to healthy active, tones the sismach, and gives good digestion, referes the bowle of torpor and constripation, allays inflammation, purifies the skin, equalises the circulation of the bood, i.e. during gentle warmth equally all over the body, and the insensible perspiration; relayer strictures and tichness, as insensible perspiration; relayes strictures and tichtness, removes all obstractions, and invigorates the entire nervous system. Is not this then

It is nothing under heaven but an acid substance, which sours, and thus spoils all the fluids of the body, more rism. What causes Whentiatism has it sour and acid fluid which institutes the life between the joints and clearing the state of the body, more heart and acid fluid which it acis? So of nervous diseases, of impurity of the blood, of deranged circulation, and nearly all the silments which afflict human nature.

Now is it not horrible to make and sell, and infinitely source to use this souring, Fermenting, acid "compound" of and yet he would fain have it understood that Old Dr. Ja-tob Townsend's Gennier Original Strauguerille, is an 18 ITATION of his inferior preparation: It Beaven forbid that we should deal in an article which would bear the most distant resemblance to S. P. Town-and's article! Beaven forbid that we should deal in an article which would bear the most distant resemblance to S. P. Townsund's article?

We wish it understood, because it is the absolute truth that S. P. Townsund's article and old Dr. Jacob Townsund's Saraaparilla are heaven swide opart, and infinitely discussion; that they are unlike in every particular, haven not one single thing in common.

As S. P. Townsund is no doctor, and merer was, is no chemist, an pharmaceutist—known no more of anotherne or disease than any other common, uncertainte, unprofessional man, what gaurance can the public have that they are receiving a genuine scientific medicine, contaming all the virtues of the articles used in preparing it, and which are incapable of changes which might render the in the AGENTS of Disease instead of bealth?

But what else should be expected from one who known hould comparatively of medicine or disease? It requires a person of some experience to cook and serve up even a common decent steal. How much more important is it that the persons who manufacture medicine designed for WEAE STOMACHS AND ENFERILED SYSTEMS, should know well the medical properties of plants, the beamstear of securing and concentrating their healths virtues, also an extensive knowledge of the various diseases which affec, the human system, and how to adopt remetics where these deceases?

It is to agreet francle upon the unfortunate, to pour balm into wounded humanity, to kindle hope in the desputing bosom, to restore health, and bloom, and vigor into the crushed and broken, and to busine infirmity that OLD BE JACOB TOWNSEND has SOUGHT and FOUND the opportunity and to account to bring his portunity and means to bring his Grand Unity event Comcombrated Remodyl, srithin the reach, and to the knowledge of all who need is that they may learn and know, by joyful experience, its Transcombant Fowers to Heal.
